ESTHER: For Such A Time As This Eight 30-minute TV programs on two DVDs #DEST, $49

The Book of Esther is one of the Jewish people's favorites. In this eight-program television series, Dr. Jeffrey Seif explains its details, and points out that, like Esther herself, we Believers may be alive for such a time as this.

Beautiful Inside and Out Does God use women? Yes, He does! We begin by considering Esther's rise and wicked Queen Vashti's demise, and note how God elevates individuals to places of influence—then as now.

Chosen for a Purpose Though wickedness surfaces in various ways in every generation, God positions His people to thwart the devil's plans and fulfill His own. Here, we examine Mordecai and Esther's placement—and our own; for we, too, are called to God's work.

Called to be Courageous Faced with a plot to destroy the Jews, Esther wavers but decides her sacrifice is worth it, and declares, "If I perish, I perish!" Would that we all had such resolve!

Undone by a Woman Unbeknownst to the scheming Haman, our story's courageous heroine hatches her own plan to thwart him. The once-sheepish Esther stands up as a shepherdess. She boldly takes on the wolf, thus guiding the saga to its peaceful conclusion.

God Rewards the Righteous God uses irony to give the wicked and the righteous their just deserts. God's ways are often mysterious to us, but we see the eventual triumph of the righteous—then as now.

Justice at Last! Our story's villain comes to his inglorious end as he becomes the object of his own wicked scheme. Seeing the triumphal outcome of righteousness and faith encourages us in our own lives.

Fight We Must! Even with Haman gone, the Jews had to defend their homes and families. Such spirited self-defense is simply biblical.

The Triumph of God in Human History God turns our mourning into joy, as vividly demonstrated in this concluding program. The Jews are bidden to commemorate God's saving power and goodness in an annual celebration, Purim. We should all celebrate God's goodness, thereby banishing the passing clouds of pain and despair.

Eight 30-minute TV programs
on two DVDs #DSAR, $49

Explore what it means to walk in the footsteps of Israel's Messiah. Jeff's passage-by-passage exposition of Jesus' principal teachings comes to life through on-location production with real-world re-enactments, all performed by Israelis.

Sermon on the Mount We consider the "Beatitudes" (Matt. 5:1–12), and unpack Jesus' exhortation that Believers be "salt of the earth" and "light of the world" (5:13–16).

Crimes of the Heart Matthew 5:17–20 leads us to consider how Jesus fulfills the Torah (Jewish Law). Murder begins in the heart (5:21–26), and adultery begins with desire (5:27–30).

The Law Brought to Life Jesus speaks about divorce and the marriage bond in 5:31–32, and other human bonds in 5:33–37. Verses 38–42 deal with "going the extra mile" and how to be gracious even toward the ungracious.

Models of Behavior Jesus teaches how to deal with enemies (5:43–48). In 6:1–4, He emphasizes doing good to please God and not men. His teachings on prayer follow in 6:5–15.

Eternal Investments Verses 16–18 note that fasting pays dividends. With verses 19–21, we consider the fact that laying up treasures on Earth, alone, does not. God wants Believers to be gracious, not greedy, per verses 22–23.

God's Material Provisions Jesus challenges followers to serve either God or possessions (6:24). Blessings abound to those who serve Him (6:25–34). Considering how blessed we forgiven ones are, we must not rush to judge others (Matthew 7:1–6).

God's Spiritual Provisions Matthew 7:7–12 addresses tenacity and God's benevolence in the Christian's life. The "narrow path" we must walk (7:13–14) is not the path chosen by the majority. Our "fruits" testify on our behalf; likewise, we can beware of those whose lifestyles and teachings stand as an indictment against them (7:15–20).

Yeshua—Foundation Sufficient for Salvation God works in spite of evildoers, not through them. Deception of self and others gives way to truth at Day's End (7:21–23). Jesus advises us to build our hope for salvation on the right foundation—Him (7:24–29). Jeff reviews the entire "Sermon on the Mount," and offers closing reflections.

THE DARK PRINCE: When The Devil Has His Day

In this made-for-TV miniseries, Dr. Jeffrey Seif takes readers through Bible texts that speak about the devil. Introductory in nature, The Dark Prince gives individuals a behind-the-scenes look at Evil's workings at the ragged edge of human history, and its ultimate uprooting when Christ returns.

Satan's Rise and Demise in Genesis Though Genesis talks about the dawn of Creation and the good Earth that followed, it focuses on how Creation strayed and who is responsible. This series opener discusses Satan's emergence and God's plan to crush him when Satan arises to rule the world at the dusk of human history.

Satan in Biblical History This program pays attention to biblical history's bookends: the paradise lost story in Genesis, and the paradise restored story in Revelation. The lessons illustrating Satan's rise and demise should encourage people to position themselves on the right side of the battle line.

The Ruler of This World We follow along as Isaiah describes the "ruler of this world," Satan, through an actual ruler of the ancient world, and as Matthew relates how Satan once offered Jesus the kingdoms of this world. The temptations that the Lord avoided are ones that we should avoid, as well.

To Steal, Kill, and Destroy Out of Daniel's restless mind came images of unimaginable beasts that would wreak havoc upon a decaying world. Revelation uses the same images and picks up on the very same themes. This program examines these connections and their application to end-time Bible prophecy—and to today.

Deceit, Betrayal, and Coming Miseries The devil's principal tools—deceit and betrayal—were first noted in the Garden of Eden. We look at Jesus' agony and betrayal—also in a garden—and the flurry of miseries that will be unleashed on this planet before the garden paradise is restored, as promised in Revelation.

Armageddon and the Final Conflict Job's miseries mirror the world's in many ways, and result from Satan's agitations. The Bible gives ample evidence that Satan attacks individuals, and Revelation describes how his assaults culminate in the Battle of Armageddon.

The Collapse of an Intoxicated World The Bible informs readers that an intoxicated and disoriented last-days world will collapse and drown in its own depravity. Revelation tells this story, vividly relating how the world will lament the destruction of the evil prince of this world—a demise brought about by the Lord's return.

The Second Coming! We look at the long-anticipated return of Jesus and the consequent restoration of paradise.

The Experts Speak, Part 1 Jeff interviews Paul Wilkinson, Wayne House, Tom McCall, and Chuck Missler about the End Times—specifically, the rise of the antiChrist and the European Union.

The Experts Speak, Part 2, and Conclusion Jeff interviews Thomas Ice, Wilfred Hahn, William Koenig, Todd Strandberg, Joel Rosenberg, and Tim LaHaye about the End Times—specifically, the rise of the antiChrist and a global government.

THE WARRIOR KING: David-like Leadership for Goliath-like Times

The Warrior King tells the story of King David's time; but it is also the story of our own time. With challenges larger than Goliath all around us, we need Bible-based leaders now more than ever. In this eight-part series, Dr. Jeffrey Seif speaks to that need. Dramatic re-enactments—shot on location in Israel—complement the teachings in this series.

The Call We consider how David captured the heart of Israel, his selection by Samuel, and the amazing battle with Goliath that catapulted him to renown.

David and Saul Unfair trials often checker the road to success. We explore David's abuse at the hands of King Saul, and his bond with the king's son Jonathan. We evaluate Saul's death and David's gracious response.

Family The Bible tells of the good, the bad, and the ugly. In this program we look at David's marriage and family intrigue.

Wars David was a warrior—a spiritual role model for us all! Philistine, Amalekite, and Ammonite wars are discussed, along with modern-day applications.

Celebrated Warrior King Though anointed by God for kingship, David spent 13 years running from Israel's first king before ascending to the throne himself. As we hear the story of David's rise to power over all Israel, Jeff fleshes out its applications.

A Messianic Prototype The New Testament refers to Jesus as the "Son of David"—with good reason. We examine how the Old Testament predicted a coming Davidic Son.

Israel's Sweet Psalmist David's gift for creating poetry and music shows that he was "in touch" with something beyond the state of his armies. Viewers will benefit from this program's window into the softer side of the man.

Messiah Messianic parallels abound in the person of David. In this closing program, we consider their various applications and implications. You'll walk away saying "He lives!" and, we hope, believing that He lives in you.

The Warrior King: David-like Leadership for Goliath-like Times Book #WK, $12

An 86-page transcript of highlights from the television series. Includes dozens of photos and an abundance of Hebrew with translation.

At one level, The Warrior-King is a story about the Old Testament's David—Israel's greatest soldier. At another level, it's about the Bible's "Son of David"—the New Testament's promised "Messiah." At yet another level, the subtitle David-like Leadership for Goliath-like Times indicates that it's both from all time and for all time. It's about trials and triumphs, and how God, through His Son's graces, uses abysmal circumstances to improve individuals who rely on Him.

Plus, Jeff's companion book

This is indeed a message for our time. This book evolved out of an eight-part series of the same name that was made for television, and can be used as a companion to the television series or independent of it. Because both the book and TV series offer ideas for improving human and spiritual relationships, they will benefit individuals and groups.

ZOLA'S HIGHLIGHTS: A Video Collection of Classic Zola

These programs celebrate the timeless teachings of the late Zola Levitt, one of the most beloved Bible teachers in America. Highlights from 30 years of television broadcasting are condensed into 4 half-hour programs that examine Zola's early, mid-career, and later teaching. On-location footage from Israel gives viewers insights into the biblical world and Word.

Israel, My Promised Zola taught the Scriptures from a decidedly Jewish perspective. In one of his first series, Messiah, Zola taught about Jesus' Jewish beginnings; in Armageddon, he talked about The End. This program contains these and more.

Israel By Divine Right Drawing on Zola's mid-career teachings, we see him investigate and extol the Gospel's expansion beyond Jews—to non-Jews. Though many knew Jesus as the Savior, Zola wanted the world to know Him as the Jewish Savior. This program offers samplings of this emphasis, and also delves into the Dead Sea Scrolls, introduces Islam, and considers prophecy.

Jerusalem Forever Zola's contagious love for Israel—which mimics the Scripture's—is apparent in his music, books, and TV productions. This program visits Zola in mid-career when he teaches about the Bible's Jewish roots, emphasizing his trademark subject: prophecy.

Friends of the Rabbi Viewer interest in how the Old Testament holy days connect to New Testament events made The Holy Days of Our Lord one of Zola's more popular series. Zola examined that connection by focusing on those who claimed to follow Jesus: early Believers, Crusaders, and others. The program concludes with an interview with author Tim LaHaye.

JEHOVAH'S TREASURE— The Quest for the Ark of the Covenant and Temple Treasures

Five years in the making and narrated by David Dolan, a long-time friend of ZLM and former Jerusalem reporter for CBS, Jehovah's Treasure uniquely documents the unearthing of two extraordinary tunnels in the Judean Desert. These tunnels were discovered after the Copper Scroll, one of the Dead Sea Scrolls, indicated that Temple treasures were buried all over Israel, some near the caves of Qumran where the Scrolls were discovered. Archaeologist Oren Gutfeld kindly permitted us to document three years of his excavations in tunnels that descend at a perfect 35° for 425 feet—tunnels dating back to the First Temple Period. Nowhere else in all of Israel has anyone found tunnels like these.

Thus, with interviews and dramatic re-enactments, Jehovah's Treasure presents the biblical account of the Ark and the Temple Treasures. At the same time, it uncovers the incredible mystery of tunnels that may lead to the very same treasures.

Is history finally about to unleash its most profound desert secrets? Will the Holy Treasures be revealed at the end of the Judean tunnels? Or will they remain a secret, buried deep within Jerusalem's politically contested Temple Mount?

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THE RABBI FROM TARSUS

In this twelve-part TV series, Dr. Jeffrey Seif sheds light on the Apostle Paul, his movements, and his message. After examining Paul's travels throughout the Roman Empire, Jeff analyzes Paul's divinely inspired letters to early Church congregations, preserved in the New Testament.

First Steps Toward Christ Paul's conversion and subsequent ministry in Damascus/Arabia.

First "Official" Ministry Journey Paul's movements in Jerusalem, Tarsus, and Cilicia, and his "Famine Relief" visit to Jerusalem.

Apostolic Ordination and Subsequent Missionary Journey Paul's apostolic launch, noting his first missionary journey and follow-up trip to Jerusalem to sort out the angst that developed in the wake of his message to non-Jews.

Second and Third Missionary Journeys Continues with Paul's missionary trips and ends with his apparently ill-fated trek to Jerusalem.

Arrest and Appeal to Rome for Trial Paul's arrest, his transport to a Caesarean prison, and his appeal to Rome where he is eventually sent for trial.

Roman Imprisonment, Release, Travels, and Death Shows Paul imprisoned in Rome, his release and further ministry, and his eventual execution in Rome.

The next six programs consider Paul's divinely inspired Parchments in the order they were written—not from longest to shortest, which is how they appear in the New Testament.

Paul's Earliest Writings: Galatians and 1 Thessalonians

Follow-up to the Thessalonians, and 1 Corinthians

Reconciliation with the Corinthians, and Roman Correspondence

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THE RABBI FROM TARSUS Companion Book to the Television Series #FRT, $12

Thirteen of the New Testament's 27 books bear Paul's seal and signature. Consequently, he is the New Testament's principal interpreter of what it means to be "Christian." Jeff looks closely at Paul and the fact that the major "Christian" interpreter lived, acted, and thought as a "Jewish" rabbi. St. Paul, a rabbi?

To make his case, Jeff takes us into the pagan world, where Paul ministered, and chronicles Paul's movements, assessing what his historian Luke said about them. Then, Jeff examines Paul's divinely inspired letters to early Church congregations to hear Paul out in his own words. In considering what Luke said about Paul's travels and what Paul said in Paul's writings, Jeff brings various Jewish insights to bear, enabling readers to envision the Apostle Paul as the Jewish rabbi that he really was. This book will revolutionize your understanding of the major Christian Apostle! You'll see him more clearly and develop a crisper glimpse of what it actually means to be a follower of Israel's Messiah—the One we call Jesus.

EZEKIEL AND THE MIDEAST 'PIECE' PROCESS

Eight 30-minute television programs on 2 DVDs #DEZK, $49

In this eight-part television series, Dr. Jeffrey Seif and Mrs. Sandra Levitt take viewers into one of the Bible's most mysterious and fascinating books. Ezekiel forcefully predicts Israel's re-emergence as a nation-state at "day's end," and prophesies that neighboring nation-states will marshal military resources to annihilate the fledgling state. Let's consider pieces to Ezekiel's end-time puzzle.

Ezekiel: The Man, His Time, His Message—Then and Now

His name means "God strengthens." Reared as a priest in Jerusalem, Ezekiel finds himself among the exiles who are taken to Babylon. His encounter with God in a heavenly vision launches his prophetic message to a wayward people.

Overview—Destructive and Constructive Prophecy

A survey of the entire Book of Ezekiel—judgment on Judah and the nations around it, Israel's re-emergence, a climactic war, and a restored Temple—with emphasis on prophecy fulfillment today.

Judah's Demise This segment examines particular pieces of Ezekiel's prophecy, noting Judah's painful downfall and God's everlasting mercy even so through His promise to gather and rebuild Israel—something that is happening today.

Prophecies of Israel's Last-Days Rise A major piece in God's prophetic, end-times puzzle consists of subsequent predictions of Israel's last-days rise. A once-desolate land has become like Eden.

Israel's Neighbor States Israel will rally against its hostile neighbors; this part highlights Ezekiel's predictions that larger regional forces will mobilize against Israel in a climactic war that they will lose.

The Valley of the Dry Bones Israel's re-emergence as a nation is dramatized through Ezekiel's startling vision of skeletons rising from their graves, forming a mighty nation. Independence Hall in Tel Aviv serves as the backdrop to a remarkable prophecy fulfilled in our generation.

The Battle of Gog and Magog The nations surrounding Israel are bent on its destruction. Thousands of years ago, Ezekiel foretold an end-times war, but also predicted a miraculous Israelite triumph.

The Restored Temple Ezekiel prophesied a restored Earth and a new Jerusalem Temple from which miraculous healing waters will spring forth. Ultimately, God's ways are known on planet Earth.
